
Online:

In the past, the online intern has shot and edited video, taken photos and assisted the online editor with other Web-related projects. This position, like the others, is different each semester because it is influenced by the student's interests and skills in areas like photography.

Interns must work 10 to 20 hours per week during the unpaid, semester-long internship.

For more information, visit pittsburghmagazine.com/intern. To apply, please contact Kristina Martin, assistant editor and internship coordinator, at kmartin@pittsburghmagazine.com.

