Design:

The design intern must know how to use Adobe programs like Photoshop, InDesign and Illustrator. Design interns assist the art director and online editor by creating or resizing ads, laying out stories and more.

Interns must work 10 to 20 hours per week during the unpaid, semester-long internship.

For more information, visit pittsburghmagazine.com/intern. To apply, please contact Kristina Martin, assistant editor and internship coordinator, at kmartin@pittsburghmagazine.com.
